BURGLARY.

I. C. Office At Gracy Was Forcibly Entered.

TWO MEN ARRESTED.

Enforcement Of Inebriate Law Doing Good-Frank Provse Gets an Honorable Discharge.

Yesterday night at Gracy burglars attempted to rob the office of the I. C. Railroad Company. An iron bar was pried from the window with an old axe, and the burglars entered the office. They took the cash in the cash drawer but the agent had put all the cash into the safe.

Since the burglary on I. C. detective has been at Gracy working on the case. Wednesday he and Marshal Tom Witty arrested Henry Galtier and George Pool, both charged with the crime. It is claimed that they have a strong case against the suspects.

Judge James B. Breathitt the I. C. attorney went down to Gracy this afternoon to represent the company in this examining trial.

WILL ENFORCE THE LAW.

Moral Atmosphere Of the City Court Is Much Improved.

Irving Cooley has been arrested and will be tried Monday under the section of the Statute which prohibits persons from giving whiskey to laborers.

The case will excite much interest as the recent activity in the City Court and by the police in the enforcement of this law has aroused no little comment at the heads of those who come within its meaning.

Place furnished the saloons with a list of those who are shown by the records of the court to be frequently intoxicated. Judge Leavelle says that there has been a great change for the better. The moral atmosphere of the City Court has been greatly purified and it is his intention to carry out the law in its meaning and spirit.

FRANK PROVSE DISCHARGED.

Dr. Clarky Secures Honorable Discharge For Hopkinsville Soldier.

Hon. John D. Clarky, House of Representatives, "Secretary of War has ordered immediate discharge of Frank Provse, Company E, Third Kentucky.

"Frank, As I Am Gen." The above resolution was received by Dr. Clarky Monday and immediately forwarded to County Clerk John P. Provse, father of the popular soldier who lies in the hospital at Camp Conrad has been noted in the New Era.

Mr. Provse expresses himself in terms of the deepest gratitude for Dr. Clarky's indefatigable efforts in Frank's behalf, and every member of his family shares the sentiment. Frank will return home as soon as his condition will permit him being released from the hospital.

ROYAL LIQUOR COMPANY.

One of the most attractive "ads" that have appeared recently in Kentucky papers is the large one of the Royal Liquor Company in this issue of the Kentucky New Era.

This establishment is receiving a most liberal patronage on account of the superior stock carried and the courteous and honorable treatment accorded every customer.

The proprietors extend this genial invitation to the public: "We are too busy waiting on our friends, filling jugs and bottles with our fine old whiskeys and brandies, to write invitations, so we take this method of giving every one a cordial invitation to come and see us. Life is too short to stop and quote prices on everything we have in our stock. But remember! Our stock is the largest, our brands the oldest, our quality the best and the purest, and our prices the very lowest. We have no competition, for we are the only "exclusive" whiskey store in Christian county. There are no others. Jugs furnished without charge."

Don't fail to read the big advertisement to-day.

Be careful when buying diamonds; they are goods that its very few people who understand or have the experience to know their imperfections. They even go with many who sell them. They will be buying them from the old reliable jeweler M. D. KELLY, who has the experience and will tell you the truth about them every time.

GREAT BARGAINS.

To a large proportion of New Era readers the large advertisement of W. T. Cooper & Co., in this impression will prove as interesting as the matter found in the regular news columns.

This popular and enterprising firm announces a wonderful Queensware sale, beginning Saturday, Dec. 17, and continuing through the following Monday and Tuesday.

Great bargains are offered, and housekeepers who want to save money should carefully study the prices quoted in the advertisements.

Bargains are not confined to the queensware department, however. Staple and holiday articles of all sorts may be bought at Cooper & Co.'s at remarkably low prices.

To my patrons who need spectacles and want their eyes examined: I would advise to wait until after the holiday rush. You will then get the attention that is absolutely necessary for the correct examination of the eyes and consequently the best results. Respectfully, M. D. KELLY, Graduate Optician.

EX-SENATOR BRICE IS DEAD.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA) NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice died suddenly at three o'clock this afternoon.

"THE BEGGAR PRINCE"

Will Be Given at Holland's Opera-House This Evening.

The Beggar Prince Opera Company presented "The Beggar Prince" last night to a most appreciative audience. The company is composed of artists admirably fitted for the roles in which they are cast. Mr. Wade, the Prince, is splendid. His funny make-up and speeches, delivered in a voice of great volume, convulsed the audience every time he made his appearance. Forrest Cleveland, as Pippo, and Miss Marcella, as Bettina, were very good, and were given several encores on their solos and duets during the opera. The specialities introduced by Wade, Graves and Ammons were a strong feature of the performance. The company gave universal satisfaction.—Frankfort Capital at Holland's opera-house tonight.

MARRIAGE EPIDEMIC.

Four Color Couples Were Joined in Marriage Wednesday.

Matrimony was epidemic among the colored population Wednesday. Licenses were issued to the following couples: William Pool to Annie Radford, Edie Ship to Mary Layne; Palmer Gee to Mary Watt; George Samuel Hall to Julia Greenwald.

All except the last named couple were married by Judge Canale in the Clerk's office Wednesday afternoon.

If you need a nickel alarm clock see them at M. D. KELLY's before buying. He has any kind you want and at prices to suit.

OLD OFFICERS.

The Kentucky Swine Breeders' Association held its annual meeting in Louisville this week. About sixty members were present. The annual election of officers was held, and all the old officers elected, as follows: A. J. Chircobill, Harlan county, President; Caldwell Norton, Jefferson county, Vice-President; M. W. Neal, Jefferson county, Secretary and Treasurer; Executive Committee—J. O. Hibbs, Hardin county; R. H. Haggins, Christian county; Frank K. Rapier, Nelson county.

NEXT SPRING.

The Kentucky monument in Officemans Park has been completed, but Gov. Bradley has decided that the dedicatory exercises will not be held before spring.

DOUBLE HANGING.

It is probable that as soon as the Governor fixes a day for Bob Blane's execution, Judge Robbins will set the execution of Will Tate for the same day at Mayfield.

WILL ORGANIZE.

A movement is on foot to organize an association for the purpose of inducing immigration to the Green River country, and otherwise promote the development of the resources of that section.

MAYOR DABNEY'S FEATURES.

The Louisville Commercial yesterday printed an excellent picture of Hopkinsville's popular Mayor, F. W. Dabney. The picture was printed in a group of Kentucky mayors and is decidedly the handsomest face among them.

SEVERELY SCALDED.

Hendron Waller, the four-year-old son of Mrs. Bailey Waller, met with a very painful accident yesterday. Mrs. Waller boards with Mrs. Mills on East Seventh street. This morning while the child was playing in front of a fire in his father's room, a kettle of hot water was overturned and the contents spilled on the little fellow's legs. He was severely burned.

MOVING TO GREENVILLE.

"Squire Jack Hanbury is now engaged in moving his family to Greenville, where he will reside in future. He says that the announcement that he had accepted a deputyship under the sheriff of Mahanberg county is premature. It is probable that he will engage in the 1,000 business at Greenville.

SURPRISED

Were Friends of Dr. Russell and Miss Henry.

QUIETLY MARRIED

Wednesday Evening at Home of Rev. J. C. Late, in Clarksville.

When the 8:15 train pulled out of Hopkinsville Wednesday it carried one very happy passenger. That passenger was Dr. E. P. Russell, and he had a right to be happy. The fact is that Dr. Russell was on his way to meet his bride to be, Miss Green Henry, of this city.

Miss Henry has been visiting in Nashville during the past two weeks. It was arranged that she should meet Dr. Russell at Guthrie and that they should take the 8 o'clock train for Clarksville where the marriage would take place. Miss Henry reached Guthrie on the Hopkinsville accommodation and was met by Dr. Russell. A little later they were speeding on their journey to Clarksville.

At the depot in Clarksville they were met by Mr. Hugh Phelps, who had purchased license and a carriage. They drove at once to the residence of Rev. and Mrs. James O. Tate, who are relatives of Miss Henry. In the parlor of Dr. Tate's residence at nine o'clock the impressive ceremony was pronounced. Dr. Russell and his bride were then driven to the Arlington hotel.

They took the six o'clock morning train for Guthrie and reached Hopkinsville yesterday at ten o'clock. Dr. and Mrs. Russell will reside for the present with Mrs. Kate Henry, the bride's mother, at Ninth and Walnut streets.

Dr. Russell is one of the most prominent and successful physicians in this city, occupying an enviable position in his profession and in social circles. He is a gentleman of broad culture and sterling worth and his friends are legion. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Kate Henry and sister of Lieutenant Colonel Joustette Henry, of the Third Kentucky Infantry. She comes of one of the best families in the State and is an honor to her distinguished lineage. She is a stately blonde of splendid presence and rare accomplishments, whose gifts and graces have made her a general favorite in the social circles of Hopkinsville.

A host of friends join the New Era in extending congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Russell.

BOB WILHELM'S LUCK.

He is Appointed Sergeant Major of the Third Kentucky.

Sergeant Robert S. Wilhelm, of the Paducah company, Third Kentucky regiment, was yesterday appointed sergeant major to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Gordon B. Nelson, who received an honorable discharge from the service a few days ago. This is a deserved promotion, with rank next to lieutenant, and Mr. Wilhelm's Paducah friends will be glad to learn of his success.—Paducah News.

Plot to Abduct Dreyfus.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA) LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Daily News Paris correspondent sends a weird story to the effect that the French League of Patriots, numbering 300,000, under M. Paul Droulede, the anti-revolutionist, will prevent the return of Dreyfus to Paris. The War Department will place Paris in a state of siege, if necessary, to foil the object of the Patriots.

Crispi's Warning.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA) ROME, Dec. 15.—Ex-Premier Crispi, in an article published in the Rivista d'Italia, treating of the claim of France to a protectorate over the Christians in Palestine, says France has a right to protect only those Turkish subjects who are French and Christians. The ex-Premier adds that the voyage of the Kaiser to the Holy Land will have very grave consequences.

OPPOSED TO EXPANSION

Citizen Bryan Talks to the Nation.

GREATER DANGER

Menaces United States Than Cuba.

AN ACTIVE FIGHT ON.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA) SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 14.—Last night Col. W. J. Bryan departed for Washington. He will stay there a few days before going West. The address on public questions which he has maintained since entering the army was broken yesterday afternoon. He said in connection with his resignation: "Now that the treaty of peace has been concluded, I believe that I can be more useful to the country as a civilian than a soldier."

Col. Bryan then proceeded to the discussion of public questions, saying: "The people of the United States have long been oppressed from foreign control, may now resume the discussion of the domestic problems which confront this nation and turn to the consideration of the new questions arising out of the war. I may be in error, but in my judgement, our nation is in greater danger just now than Cuba. The people defended Cuba against a foreign idea, the colonial idea of European nations."

"Heretofore greed has perverted the government and used its instrumentalities for private gain, but now the veritable principles of our government are assailed. The imperialistic idea is directly antagonistic to the idea and ideals which have been cherished by the American people since the signing of the declaration of independence. Our nation must give up any intention of entering upon a colonial policy such as is now pursued by European countries, or it must abandon the doctrine that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

"We may believe that governments come up from the people or we may believe that governments come down to the people from those who possess the heaviest cannon and the largest ships, but we cannot advocate both doctrines. To borrow a Bible quotation, 'A house divided against itself cannot stand,' paraphrasing Lincoln's declaration, I may add that this nation can not endure half republic and half colony, half free and half vassal. Our form of government, our traditions, our political interests and our future welfare all forbid our entering upon a career of conquest."

"It will be easier, I think, to end the war at once by ratifying the treaty and deal with the subject in our own way. The issue can be presented directly by a resolution of Congress declaring the policy of the nation upon this subject. We should reserve a harbor and cooling station in Porto Rico and the Philippines in return for services rendered, and I think we would be justified in asking the same concession from Cuba. But the Philippines islands are too far away and their people too different from ours to be annexed to the United States, even if they desired it."

Col. Bryan will arrive in Washington Wednesday afternoon. He intends to attend actively to the fight against the colonial policy.

BREEZY.

Will Winfree's Bright Letter From Camp Conrad.

BUCKNER'S BON MOTS.

Willie Sang, and Audience Was Carried Away—Hopkinsville Boys Receive Courtesies.

Camp Conrad, Columbus, Ga., Dec. 11. The entire brigade, consisting of the 160th Indiana, Third Kentucky, and First W. Virginia regiments, all of which are now in camp at this place, paraded the streets of Columbus last Tuesday afternoon, in full army equipment, carrying their guns, ammunition, etc.

A practice fatigue march and review were ordered by Gen. Ludlow, whose division we are now in, last Thursday. These marches are generally made over country roads, but at the request of the citizens of Columbus, Ga., Gen. Ludlow ordered that it be through the streets. With a band at the head of each regiment and banners floating in the breeze, the entire brigade, drilling in platoons, was taken through the principal streets of the city.

At the Rankins House, on Broad street, Gen. Ludlow stood upon the balcony, with the Mayor and members of the city council, whom he had invited to witness the proceedings. From this place he reviewed the regiments as they passed. Such a sight had not been witnessed here since the stormy days of civil strife. Thousands of spectators crowded the veranda and sidewalks and viewed with wonder and admiration the passing army. On reaching a suburb of the city the troops were given a twenty-minute rest. The review march was made in columns of four, which considerably lengthened the line. When the first company arrived in camp the last was just emerging from the city.

The boys were greatly fatigued upon reaching camp, the march having been altogether about eight miles.

The Third regiment received many compliments, and their appearance and general military bearing was commented upon by all of the Columbus papers. It is conceded by all of the people of this place, and by Gen. Ludlow himself, that the Third Kentucky is the crack regiment of the brigade.

The First W. Virginia has been here about ten days now. Since their arrival they have been in a state of confusion. Owing to the inclemency of the weather they have been delayed in the completion of their work, such as building sheds and houses, etc. They are, however, about straightened out now, and are beginning to enter into the duties of military life in earnest.

The 160th Indiana and Third Kentucky regiments are bound by bonds of mutual friendship and are almost as one.

Sunday morning inspection has now become one of the orders in the routine of camp life. On this occasion every soldier is required to have a shave, shine and shampoo; whether he has razor, blacking brush or money, he must in some way procure these valuable requisites to a soldier's appearance.

The kind people of Columbus take a great deal of interest in their country's patriotic sons. When the weather is so inclement a large crowd of interested spectators is always seen upon the parade grounds to witness the drills, exercises, which take place at two o'clock every afternoon. We have not as yet been to a place where we were accorded the same hospitality, or met with more refinement and culture than exhibited by the people of this city.

There has been no distinction made between the "com," the "pan-com" and the private by these people, who realize that boys of some of the best families of their respective States have enlisted as privates. They judge a gentleman by his conduct, without considering the insignia of rank. The private has truly made a sacrifice, whereas, probably nine-tenths of the commissioned officers have been materially benefited by the change. This fact the Columbus people seem to appreciate, and we are truly grateful to them for their consideration. Among the number of Columbus people who have honored the Hopkinsville boys with a visit are Mr. F. D. Peabody, a distinguished lawyer of this place, and Mr. S. J. Court, who is well-known by many of the best people of Christian county. Mr. Peabody was formerly a resident of Hopkinsville. For several years he was assistant to Major Ferrell and was commander of cadets before the military feature was abolished. He speaks fondly of Hopkinsville and her people. He called upon us shortly after our arrival in this place. In a few days after his visit our company was the proud recipient of two barrels of oysters with compliments from that gentleman. Last Thursday evening a select crowd was entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, on Hamilton avenue. An elegant repast was served at six o'clock. The evening was spent in conversation and brilliant repartee and was one of the most enjoyable functions in which the boys had participated for many months. Those present were: Misses Marie Court, Annie Owers, Josephine Hardin, Lillian Martin; Sgt. H. P. Thomas, Sgt. E. P. Zimmer, Thos. Williams, Bob Buckner, Will Winfree, Jim Breathitt, Mr. and Mrs. Law.

We have just discovered that Bob Buckner is pretty good at repartee. Still this will not get him a discharge. While at Mr. Peabody's Bob was discussing with the latter an order which has recently been issued prohibiting a commissioned officer walking the street with a private soldier. Bob remarked in conclusion that "in the army the officers did not allow him to walk the street with them, while out of it he would not allow most of the officers to walk the street with him."

One of the young ladies remarked that of course there were exceptions to all rules. "Yes to all but military rules," rejoined Bob. While Bob is very fine at repartee, Hiram Thomas is a cake walk. At Mr. Peabody's the other night he and his partner Miss Court easily carried off the prize cake, while Miss Zimmer and her partner, Miss Josephine Hardin, contested for some time with Jim Breathitt and Miss Martin, when finally a decision was rendered by the judges giving a popcorn cracker to Breathitt and donating to Zimmer a gingersnap. Miss Owers and myself being too dignified to enter into a cake walking contest were requested to contribute something to the amusement of the party.

Miss Owers was asked to recite, which she did very gracefully. At the solicitation of Mr. Peabody who had been led to believe that I could sing by false representation of Jim Breathitt, Tom Williams and Bob Buckner, I protested, but finally consented.

They allowed me to select my own song. I selected "I Know That You Will Call Me Back Again" as it was suggestive of another invitation.

I sang with such pathos and feeling that the audience was completely carried away. At the conclusion of the song I found them all congregated in the remotest room of the house. I was very much surprised upon my departure at receiving an invitation to call again.

Frank Pattin has undergone many changes since he left home. He was first a cooper. Afterward he was by a unanimous vote elected president of the Farmers' Alliance Club. The Sunday suspension requiring all to shave has about broken up the club. Pattin departed with reluctance from his whisks. He is now assistant ordnance officer and has retired from hard labor. He is the same congenial old St. Pinner.
